

I wish to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election. It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This action is clearly political and not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
